Contact Keeper

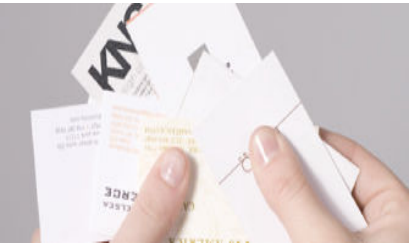

Contact Keeper is a better way to keep business cards and meeting notes together...

Common problems keeping business cards and notes together

Writing on cards is difficult and defaces them. Notes are illegible and incomplete.

Unorganized stacks of business cards in pockets and on desks = forgotten contacts.

Business card file pages and other card storage systems have no room for notes.

Solution: Your important contact's business card, and the critical notes from your meeting, can now be kept together and organized for future reference
